Together McLoughlin Collection and Bettinger Studio produced Lucite tables, now at David Sutherland (www.davidsutherlandshowroom.com), that incorporate photographs into the tabletops.

Clarence House

Lively, inventive patterns are a hallmark of the exuberant textiles from Clarence House. Joining the stable is Noemi, a French-made update of a 17th-century document in a cotton blend, which features a swooping, colorful pattern of oak leaves, acorns and branches against a contrasting solid ground.

Light Work

For his lighting Terry Tynan (www.terrytynan.com) has reinterpreted Art Déco forms, as in the case of the TT200, $1,900, and reproduced period styles, such as the PTN03, $1,900, based on the work of Walter Von Nessen.

Theatrical Effect

A custom request spurred the creation of the Marquee theater sofa, from $10,400, from Phyllis Morris (www.phyllismorris.com). Gentle curves and a tufted back evoke a vintage feeling.
