Call it comfort food for the home—everyone's favorite color combo of blue and white gets a bold refresh for spring. With shades ranging from ocean to indigo and cornflower to cobalt, we're talking a veritable blue streak of style!

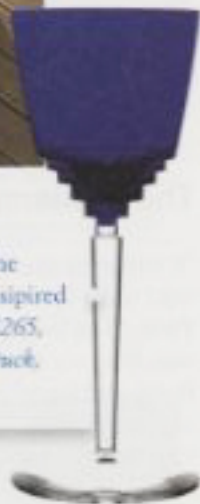

These outdoor fabrics from Dallas-based Link Design Solutions are evocative of a breezy spring day. Price upon request, at George Cameron Nash, 1025 N. Stemmons Freeway, Ste. 150, 214.744.1544

Saint-Louis Crystal reinvents the water glass with the art deco-inspired Oxymore Hock in dark blue. $265, available in May at Dahlgren Duck, 1617 Hi Line Drive, Ste. 260

We thought we were done with the John Paul Gaultier mania, until we saw this new collab in the Mah Jong series for Roche Bobois. From $1,800, 5304 Alpha Road, 972.239.4430

Sacré Bleus D'Ailleurs! The tabletop collection by Hermès is way too pretty to actually use. Almost... Teapot $580, vase $1,875, large salad bowl $660, Hermès, 21 Highland Park Village, 214.528.0197

Designed by Vladimir Kagan for Barlow Tyrie, the classic Dune Daybed updates nautical with a new waterproof fabric in sky blue. Cocktail not included! From $5,000, at Sunnyland Patio Furniture, 7879 Spring Valley Road, 972.239.3716
